Sir,

With reference to your letter No A5C 5-15-/47-48 dated the 9th June 1948 on the above subject, I am directed to observe that it would appear that the Mechanics are not proposed to be paid any Dearness Allowance as the expenditure takes into account only their salaries

2 Secondly, in your Covering letter, a period of three months is proposed for these appointments While the resolution of the Municipal Council dated the 31st May 1948 ~~with the letter~~ is silent in the matter ~~of the period for which the appointment is proposed~~. Why only a period of three months is proposed for these appointments and who will operate the Next Master for Borders after that period is not clear Approval of the Council may be obtained and intimated as regards the period for which these appointments are proposed

Thanking You

Yours truly
